

2010 NEW YORK RED BULLS HIGH SCHOOL CUP

JULY 25, 2010, 6:00 PM, RED BULL ARENA, HARRISON, NJ

The 2010 New York Red Bulls High School Cup is an all-star game that features top USSF Development Academy players from across the country in an East vs. West format. The purpose of the New York Red Bulls High School Cup is to showcase the top academy players who are rising Seniors of the Class of 2011, while giving them a true taste of the professional soccer experience. The 2010 High School Cup will take place in the brand new, soccer specific Red Bull Arena located in Harrison, NJ and cost of attendance for college coaches is free.

The 2010 New York Red Bulls High School Cup will be run in conjunction with the Barclay's New York Challenge featuring the New York Red Bulls, English clubs Manchester City, Tottenham Hotspur and Portuguese club Sporting Clube de Portugal. Admission to the High School Cup DOES NOT include tickets to the Barclay's New York Challenge double header earlier in the day. If you would like to purchase tickets for the double header, please call 1.877.RBSOCCER.

REGISTRATION:

Please call in advance to register and confirm your attendance. Entrance on the day of the match will be located at Gate C of the Arena. You must report to the High School Cup check-in table before entering. Check-in starts at 6:00PM.

GETTING TO RED BULL ARENA:

For ease and convenience coaches are strongly encouraged to utilize the multiple public transportation options available to travel to Red Bull Arena. The PATH trains from New York, Newark and Hoboken (with a transfer) all stop at the Harrison PATH station.
